

SUMMER SOCIAL LANGUAGE CALENDAR

Complete each activity listed in the calendar below and have a wonderful summer!

MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY
Set the table for dinner. Then describe each step using first, next, then, last, etc.	What does it mean if someone tells you to "sit tight"?	What would you do if you got an invitation to your friend's birthday party but you already have plans to go on vacation?	Ben sighs and erases the answer on his math homework once again. How might he feel?	Have a conversation about ice cream.
Do a load of laundry. Then describe each step using first, next, then, last, etc.	What does it mean if someone tells you to "hit the books"?	What would you do if your sister asks to play videogames with you and your friends?	Leslie jumped up and down after winning a game of bowling. How might she feel?	Have a conversation about a vacation.
Cook or bake something using a recipe. Then describe each step using first, next, then, last, etc.	What does it mean if someone says that "things got out of hand"?	What would you do if you go to a friend's house for dinner but you don't like the food that is served?	Andy was excited to go to the beach for the day, but it started to rain. How might he feel?	Have a conversation about your weekend plans.
Describe what you did over the weekend using first, next, then, last, etc.	What does it mean if someone says it's "time to hit the hay"?	What would you do if you were given the wrong amount of change after buying some ice cream?	April took a deep breath and stepped out on stage in front of 200 people. How might she feel?	Have a conversation about your favorite movie or TV show.
Make an ice cream sundae. Then describe each step using first, next, then, last, etc.	What does it mean if someone says "don't throw in the towel"?	What would you do if you accidentally broke the screen on your new computer or tablet?	Ron worked really hard to build a lemonade stand and he just made his first sale. How might he feel?	Have a conversation about the Fourth of July.
Make some s'mores. Then describe each step using first, next, then, last, etc.	What does it mean if someone says "you can say that again"?	What would you do if you were swimming and you heard thunder, but the door to the house is locked?	Jerry wanted to play videogames but his dad asked him to help with yardwork. How might he feel?	Have a conversation about your favorite part of summer.